

ANSWER USING COMPLETE SENTENCES.

CHAPTER 31

1. In what ways is Boo Radley like a child in this chapter? What is the significance of his behavior?

2. As Scout stands on the Radleys' front porch, she flashes back to a number of scenes from the previous two years. Summarize these flashbacks. What is the significance of Scout's remembering these scenes?

3. What lesson comes to Scout's mind as she reminisces on the Radley porch? What is the significance of this?

4. As Atticus leads Scout to bed, she dreamily talks about the plot of The Gray Ghost, one of the novels that she and Jem had known very well. How is the ending of that book similar to Scout's experiences with Boo Radley?

5. What is Atticus's final statement about people? What theme does this statement highlight?